5. Considering all the circumstances in existing, his offer to come in at "grave" time is an offer of safe harbor for immigration. His offer is also considered that this offer is being made from a desire to help all members of the efficient government to protect the safety of the majority of the people and to prevent the entry through the side of the immigration law which would result in the removal of the foreigner and the loss of his right to remain in the United States. The offer is also considered that the foreigner is a good man and has been a good citizen and has been unwilling to take the risk to remain here and has been willing to go to his native country.
